

Horizon Therapeutics plc Named One of the Most Innovative Companies by Crain's Chicago Business

October 26, 2020

DUBLIN--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 26, 2020-- Horizon Therapeutics plc (Nasdaq: HZNP) today announced that it is has been named one of the Most Innovative Companies in Chicago by Crain's Chicago Business. Crain's compiles the list based on a review by independent intellectual property valuation firm, Ocean Tomo, which evaluates the patents produced each year by Chicago-area companies.

Horizon made this year's list based on its work with its medicine used to treat urea cycle disorders (UCD), a rare genetic disorder that affects approximately 1 in 35,000 live births in the United States.

"At Horizon, innovation is more than a buzz word – it's the difference between someone having a treatment for their rare or rheumatic disease or living with the day-to-day complications of chronic illness," said Tim Walbert, chairman, president and chief executive officer, Horizon. "Especially during this challenging time, we are honored to be recognized by Crain's as a company leading the way in bringing critical medicines to those in need. We remain committed to working with patients, physicians, academic centers and other companies to collaboratively address the most pressing needs facing patients."
